AHH, SPRING AT LAST!

On March 20, at 6:02 a.m. Central Daylight Time, the vernal equinox occurred. This moment is often thought of as “the beginning of spring”; but meteorologically speaking, spring begins on March 1 — although judging by the weather here in McHenry County, you might have wondered why winter seems to have endured until the middle of April.

Not much happened at the April 16 meeting of the WPOA. Here are the highlights.

- We had “Neighborhood Watch” signs posted on Ojibwa Lane, but they’re not present now. Speculation says that the city has removed them. But we’re told that the police will meet with McHenry residents to discuss what the citizens can do to reduce crime. Also see the Police Department’s page at <http://www.ci.mchenry.il.us/departments/departments/police/prevention.html>
- Speaking of crime, the Conleys have reported that a window of theirs was damaged by a probable shot from a BB rifle. Only the outer pane was penetrated. No suspects are in custody.
- The McHenry Police Department has a Facebook page, on which they post much information. <https://www.facebook.com/pages/McHenry-Police-Department/258725430909793>
- The countdown to the CCR amendment continues. The front page of the WPOA website has a countdown clock that is updated every second. <http://WoodcreekMcHenry.org>
- For what it’s worth, the Woodcreek Property Owners Association now has a Twitter account. Follow us @WoodcreekPOA. Who knows, maybe we’ll post something interesting.
- Randy Wille at Meyer Material would like to meet with the residents of Woodcreek and Glacier Ridge to discuss the progress of work at the gravel pit. A meeting has been tentatively scheduled for May 7, with its location to be determined. Please check the WPOA website or Twitter account for updates.
- Liens and foreclosures were discussed, yet again. Our Association dues are not onerous; please pay your annual dues, or will we place a lien on your property.
- The cost of employing our new lawyer, Genevieve Lynott, is negligible, as long as she doesn’t need to appear in court to represent us.
