MEET THE NEIGHBORS

The annual meeting of the Woodcreek Property Owners Association will come to order!

Order drinks and appetizers, that is!

Our annual meeting will be, as it has for the past two years, at Firewood Restaurant & Sports Lounge, 2314 West Route 120, McHenry. The meeting will be on January 21st, and should begin at 7 p.m.; at least, that's how we plan it.

Please attend! Woodcreek hasn't had any community activities for a long time, and you probably haven't met your neighbors. C'mon down to Firewood! Have a beer, nibble on some nosh, and talk to other Woodcreek owners. If you don't, the Officers might order steaks and a few bottles of wine, and charge it to you.

And who knows? Maybe you can be the next President, Treasurer, or Parks Commissioner of Woodcreek!

A SMALL NOTE

You may have wondered why you are receiving this issue in January 2014, when it should have arrived in November 2013. The short story: your Secretary got himself hospitalized two weeks after the October meeting, and he was recovering when he should have publishing. But he's much better now.

The next issue of the Promulgator will be in your mailbox on February 1, 2014, with the usual news of the Association and a plea for everyone to pay their annual dues.

HIGHLIGHTS FOR HOMEOWNERS

What went on at the last meeting:

- Representatives of the Association declined to attend a meeting on September 24 with Meyer Material. The only action was to be a tour of the pit, and we've already seen that.
  - The fence on the western berm is less than impressive. It seems to be chicken wire, and not the cyclone fence which we expected.
  - ComEd was working in the area, replacing a cable because of an electric fault.
  - 6107 Ojibwa Lane — at the entrance to Woodcreek — may have a new owner, but we're not sure. The county records do not give that information yet.

- Speaking of the County, you can check the Assessor’s site for information on tax bills: <<http://www.co.mchenry.il.us/county-government/departments-a-i/assessments/assessment-records>>
